I Will Not Remain Silent is a concerto for violin and orchestra inspired by the life of Joachim Prinz.

Prinz was a rabbi in Berlin under the Hitler regime who bravely warned Jews of the Holocaust and saved many lives. Later, in the United States, Prinz became a friend of Martin Luther King, Jr., and an outspoken leader of the Civil Rights Movement. In the first movement of I Will Not Remain Silent, the orchestra represents Nazi Germany. In the second movement, the orchestra is America during the Civil Rights era. In both movements, the solo violin represents the voice and mind of Joachim Prinz.
